FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LAURA BURGESS MARKETING NOW OFFERING ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES IN WEEKLY E-NEWSLETTER

PORTSMOUTH, NH – August 14, 2009 – Laura Burgess Marketing, public relations and marketing communications for the law enforcement, tactical, military and shooting sports markets, today announced new opportunities for companies within these industries to gain further public exposure through advertising space within the Laura Burgess Marketing e-Newsletter. The e-Newsletter is a weekly publication distributed to media contacts in the shooting sports, hunting, law enforcement and military markets. For only $50 per advertisement, advertisers will receive 75 words, a link and an image in the e-Newsletter. Please contact Laura Burgess Marketing for further details about this new offer.

“We at Laura Burgess Marketing are really excited to present this new advertising opportunity to those in the shooting sports, hunting, law enforcement and military markets,” said Laura Burgess, Founder and President of Laura Burgess Marketing. “Our e-Newsletter has become very popular over the years and the frequency of delivery has increased from once a month to every week. With a multitude of media contacts in our database who receive our e-Newsletter, we are able to place our client’s message in the forefront of their minds.”

Laura Burgess Marketing provides full service marketing and public relations services and also offers the LB Newswire service in which customers can have a press release written and emailed to their targeted media audience for only $300.00, hundreds less than traditional newswire services.

Now, more than ever, Laura Burgess Marketing is your immediate link to the media. For more information on any services provided by Laura Burgess Marketing please call 603-436-1748 or email laura@lauraburgess.com.
