Zaffiri Precision and OLIGHT Team Up for Exclusive Co-Branded Baldr S Giveaway

Free Zaffiri Precision-branded OLIGHT Baldr S Weapon Mounted Light with purchase of select custom pistol uppers through July 31, 2025.

Largo, Fla. (July 2025) – Zaffiri Precision, a leader in precision-engineered handgun components, has partnered with OLIGHT to launch a limited-time “Glock & Glow” promotion. Now through July 31, 2025, customers who purchase select complete pistol uppers from Zaffiri Precision will receive a free, co-branded OLIGHT Baldr S weapon-mounted light—a $129.75 value—while supplies last.

Weighing just 3.5 ounces and 2.5 inches long, the compact yet powerful rail-mounted Baldr S is designed for low-light dominance, combining 800 lumens of white light with a daylight-visible green laser, all packed into a magnetically rechargeable, IPX4 water-resistant tactical body. Ambidextrous toggles allow users to easily switch between light-only, laser-only, or combo modes—designed for instinctive operation, even under pressure. This exclusive co-branded version integrates seamlessly with Zaffiri Precision’s custom slide designs for Glock and Sig platforms, delivering unmatched function, form, and firepower.

“Zaffiri Precision is thrilled to partner with OLIGHT for the FREE Baldr S promotion, offering our customers an exceptional opportunity to enhance their shooting experience with a high-quality, compact flashlight/laser combo at no additional cost. This initiative reflects our commitment to delivering value and performance to the firearms community, combining our precision-engineered components with OLIGHT's innovative technology," said Thom Kuss, Executive Director of Marketing at Zaffiri Precision.

This special offer is available with select complete upper builds for Glock 19 Gen3/5, Glock 17 Gen3, Glock 43/43X/48, and Sig P365/XL/XMacro platforms—each one a precision-engineered powerhouse that includes a custom slide, barrel, upper parts kit, and sights for seamless compatibility with OEM frames. But these aren't just parts; they're performance-driven upgrades for shooters who demand more. Zaffiri Precision's uppers are machined from premium billet steel, coated in rugged Cerakote finishes (including black, FDE, and limited-edition drops), and loaded with features like RMR-ready optics cuts, threaded barrels, and our recoil-reducing Integrated Blowhole System (IBS). Built to cycle smoothly and fit with razor-sharp precision, Zaffiri uppers deliver the kind of accuracy, control, and head-turning style that separates true custom builds from off-the-shelf options. And with optional in-house assembly, they arrive ready to run—no gunsmith required.
