Zaffiri Precision Launches Limited Multicam Black Bundle for Glock & Sig Pistols

Precision-cut slides and barrels in tactical camo are now available at a special bundle price – while supplies last.

IBS Multicam Black Bundle for Glock 19 Gen 3

Largo, Fla. (July 2025) – Zaffiri Precision, a leader in precision-engineered handgun components, is turning up the heat with the launch of its new Multicam Black Bundle Series. This limited-run collection includes everything one needs to simply swap out an OEM upper or add on to an existing compatible frame in eye-catching Multicam Black Cerakote finishes. The bundles are now available for Glock 19 Gen 3 and Sig Sauer P365XL/XMacro platforms, and feature Zaffiri Precision's single billet 17-4 stainless steel slides, offered at a special price of $399.99 - $459.99 (regularly $629.99+).

Customers can choose between three distinct Multicam Black options:

- Integrated Blowhole System \(IBS\) Multicam Black Bundle for Glock 19 Gen 3

This bundle features Zaffiri's signature IBS Slide for Glock 19 Gen 3, finished in Multicam Black Cerakote (Camo: Armor Black, Magpul OD Green, or Sniper Grey) and pre-installed with a Glock 19 Gen 3 Upper Parts Kit with Polymer Guide Rod and Standard Suppressor Height Sights—both included free. Customers can choose their preferred IBS Barrel finish: Black Nitride, TiN Gold, or Stainless. Optional upgrades include a Holosun 407c X2 or 507c X2 red dot optic and an OpticGard red dot cover compatible with those models.

- ZPS.3 Multicam Black Bundle for Glock 19 Gen 3

This option includes the aggressive, performance-focused ZPS.3 Slide for Glock 19 Gen 3, finished in Multicam Black Cerakote (Armor Black, Magpul OD Green, or Sniper Grey). It comes fully assembled with a G19 Gen 3 Upper Parts Kit with Polymer Guide Rod and Glock HD Fiber Optic Sight Set—both installed free. Customers can select from any of Zaffiri Precision’s Flush/Crown, Threaded, or Top Ported barrels. Optional upgrades include a Holosun 407c X2 or 507c X2 red dot optic and an OpticGard red dot cover compatible with those models.

- ZPS.2 Multicam Black Bundle for Sig P365XL and XMacro

Tailored for Sig fans, this bundle includes the ZPS.2 Slide for Sig P365XL, finished in Multicam Black Cerakote (Armor Black, Magpul OD Green, or Sniper Grey). The slide arrives fully built with a Sig Sauer OEM Slide Parts Kit and X-RAY3 Day/Night Sights—both installed at no additional cost. Users can choose between Flush/Crown or Threaded barrels, with or without a Loaded Chamber Indicator (LCI). Optional optics include the Holosun 407k X2 or 507k X2, and an OpticGard Cover is available for red dot protection and added flair.

ZPS.3 Multicam Black Bundle for Glock 19 Gen 3

Each bundle includes a complete slide and barrel (your choice of style and finish), with pre-installed parts and sights. They are compatible with popular red dot optics like the Trijicon RMR/SRO, Holosun 507C/407C, and Shield RMSc series. These bundles are engineered to deliver exceptional function, tight tolerances, and bold style – perfect for shooters who want performance that doesn't blend in.

“The Multicam Black Bundle was created for builders who want more than just another black slide,” said Thom Kuss, Executive Director of Marketing at Zaffiri Precision. “This release brings together high-performance machining, aggressive design, and a finish that turns heads, all at a killer value. It's everything you need to upgrade your Glock or Sig in one package.”

Like all Zaffiri Precision products, the Multicam Black Bundles are American-made, manufactured in-house, and backed by a brand trusted for innovation, individuality, and performance under pressure.
